

Community-led rural development

Clean water and steady livelihoods, reaching the villages maps forget.

Roots & Reach works with 40 communities to build wells, train farmers, and keep children in school. Every rupee is tracked, every project reported.

Donation Section

Your gift funds the next well.

A one-time gift covers materials; a monthly gift covers upkeep, training, and the staff who make projects last. Choose an amount, choose a frequency, and see exactly where it goes before you give.

- Instant tax receipt emailed to you
- Option to dedicate a gift in someone's name
- Quarterly impact report for monthly donors

Testimonials

Told by the people involved

From the families we work with to the volunteers who show up every week.

''

The well near our farm cut a two-hour walk down to ten minutes. My daughters go to school now instead.

L

Lakshmi Devi

Resident, Chittapur village

''

I signed up for one Saturday and stayed for two years. The reporting is transparent, which made it easy to keep going.

A

Arjun Mehta

Volunteer since 2023

''

The farming training changed our yield within a season. We're now teaching two neighboring villages ourselves.
